

BE YOUR YOUNIQUE

Kundli vs Compatibility

*what the chart can tell you,
and what only he can show you*

A short guide by Shruti Sethi

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

A note from me, before you turn the page

I'm not here to tell you to ignore the chart. Matching charts is a tradition many families trust, and it can be a useful lens.

But a chart describes tendencies. It doesn't describe a man. Whether he listens, apologises, respects your work and tells the truth is something only time and attention can show.

WHAT THIS GUIDE GIVES YOU

- ◆ The 36-point match, explained in plain words
- ◆ What a high score cannot tell you
- ◆ How to talk about a dosha without panic
- ◆ A two-column worksheet: what the chart says, what he shows me
- ◆ Eight questions that tell you more than any score

This is guidance, not astrological, medical or legal advice. For a detailed reading, speak to one astrologer you trust.

PART 1

The 36-point match, in plain words

Most matchings check eight areas, each worth a set number of points. Together they make 36.

AREA	POINTS	WHAT IT LOOKS AT
VARNA	1	Fit of outlook and ego
VASHYA	2	Who influences whom
TARA	3	Harmony of birth stars
YONI	4	Physical and intimate fit
GRAHA MAITRI	5	Mental wavelength, friendship
GANA	6	Temperament
BHAKOOT	7	Emotional bond, shared life
NADI	8	Health and constitution

HOW THE TOTAL IS USUALLY READ

Below 18 is generally seen as weak, 18 to 24 acceptable, 24 to 32 good, and 32 or more very good. Traditions and astrologers differ on this, so treat it as a rough guide.

PART 2

What a high score cannot tell you

Two men can both score 30 and be completely different to live with. The score has no column for these:

- ◆ How he behaves when you disagree
- ◆ Whether he respects your work and your time
- ◆ How he speaks to his mother, to waiters, to people who can do nothing for him
- ◆ Whether he tells the truth when it is inconvenient
- ◆ How he handles money, and whether he is open about it
- ◆ Whether he can say sorry and mean it

A match tells you where two charts meet. How he treats you tells you where two lives can.

THE SIMPLE RULE

Use the chart to ask better questions. Use his behaviour to find the answers.

PART 3

Dosha without panic

Families sometimes hear the word dosha and the mood changes. A calmer way to look at it:

- 1 Know what was actually said. Ask exactly which dosha, from which chart, and whether it is mentioned alone or together with other factors.
- 2 Remember that charts are read as a whole. Many traditions describe ways a dosha is balanced or cancelled. One placement is rarely the full story.
- 3 Ask one astrologer you trust for the full reading. Three nervous opinions are louder than one careful one.
- 4 Keep the person in view. A dosha is a note on a chart. He is a man you can meet, talk to and watch.

IF SOMEONE AT HOME SAYS NO BECAUSE OF THE SCORE

“I understand why this matters to you. Can we also meet him and see how he is, before we decide? I'd like us to look at both.”

WORKSHEET

The two-column check

Think of a man you are considering. Fill in what the chart says, then what he has actually shown you.

AREA	THE CHART SAYS	HE SHOWS ME
HOW WE TALK
DISAGREEMENTS
GROWTH

Where the two columns agree, enjoy it. Where they don't, trust the second column.

PART 4

Eight questions that tell you more than a score

What do you do when you are angry?

What does a good weekend look like for you?

How do you see my work in our life?

How do you and your family handle disagreements?

What do you do with money when it is tight?

Tell me about a mistake you learned from.

What would you want your home to feel like?

What are you still working on in yourself?

Listen to the answer, and to how he listens to yours.

WHAT COMES NEXT

Your own chart can do more than match

A match tells you about two people. Your own chart can tell you about you: how you are wired, and what supports you as you call him in.
